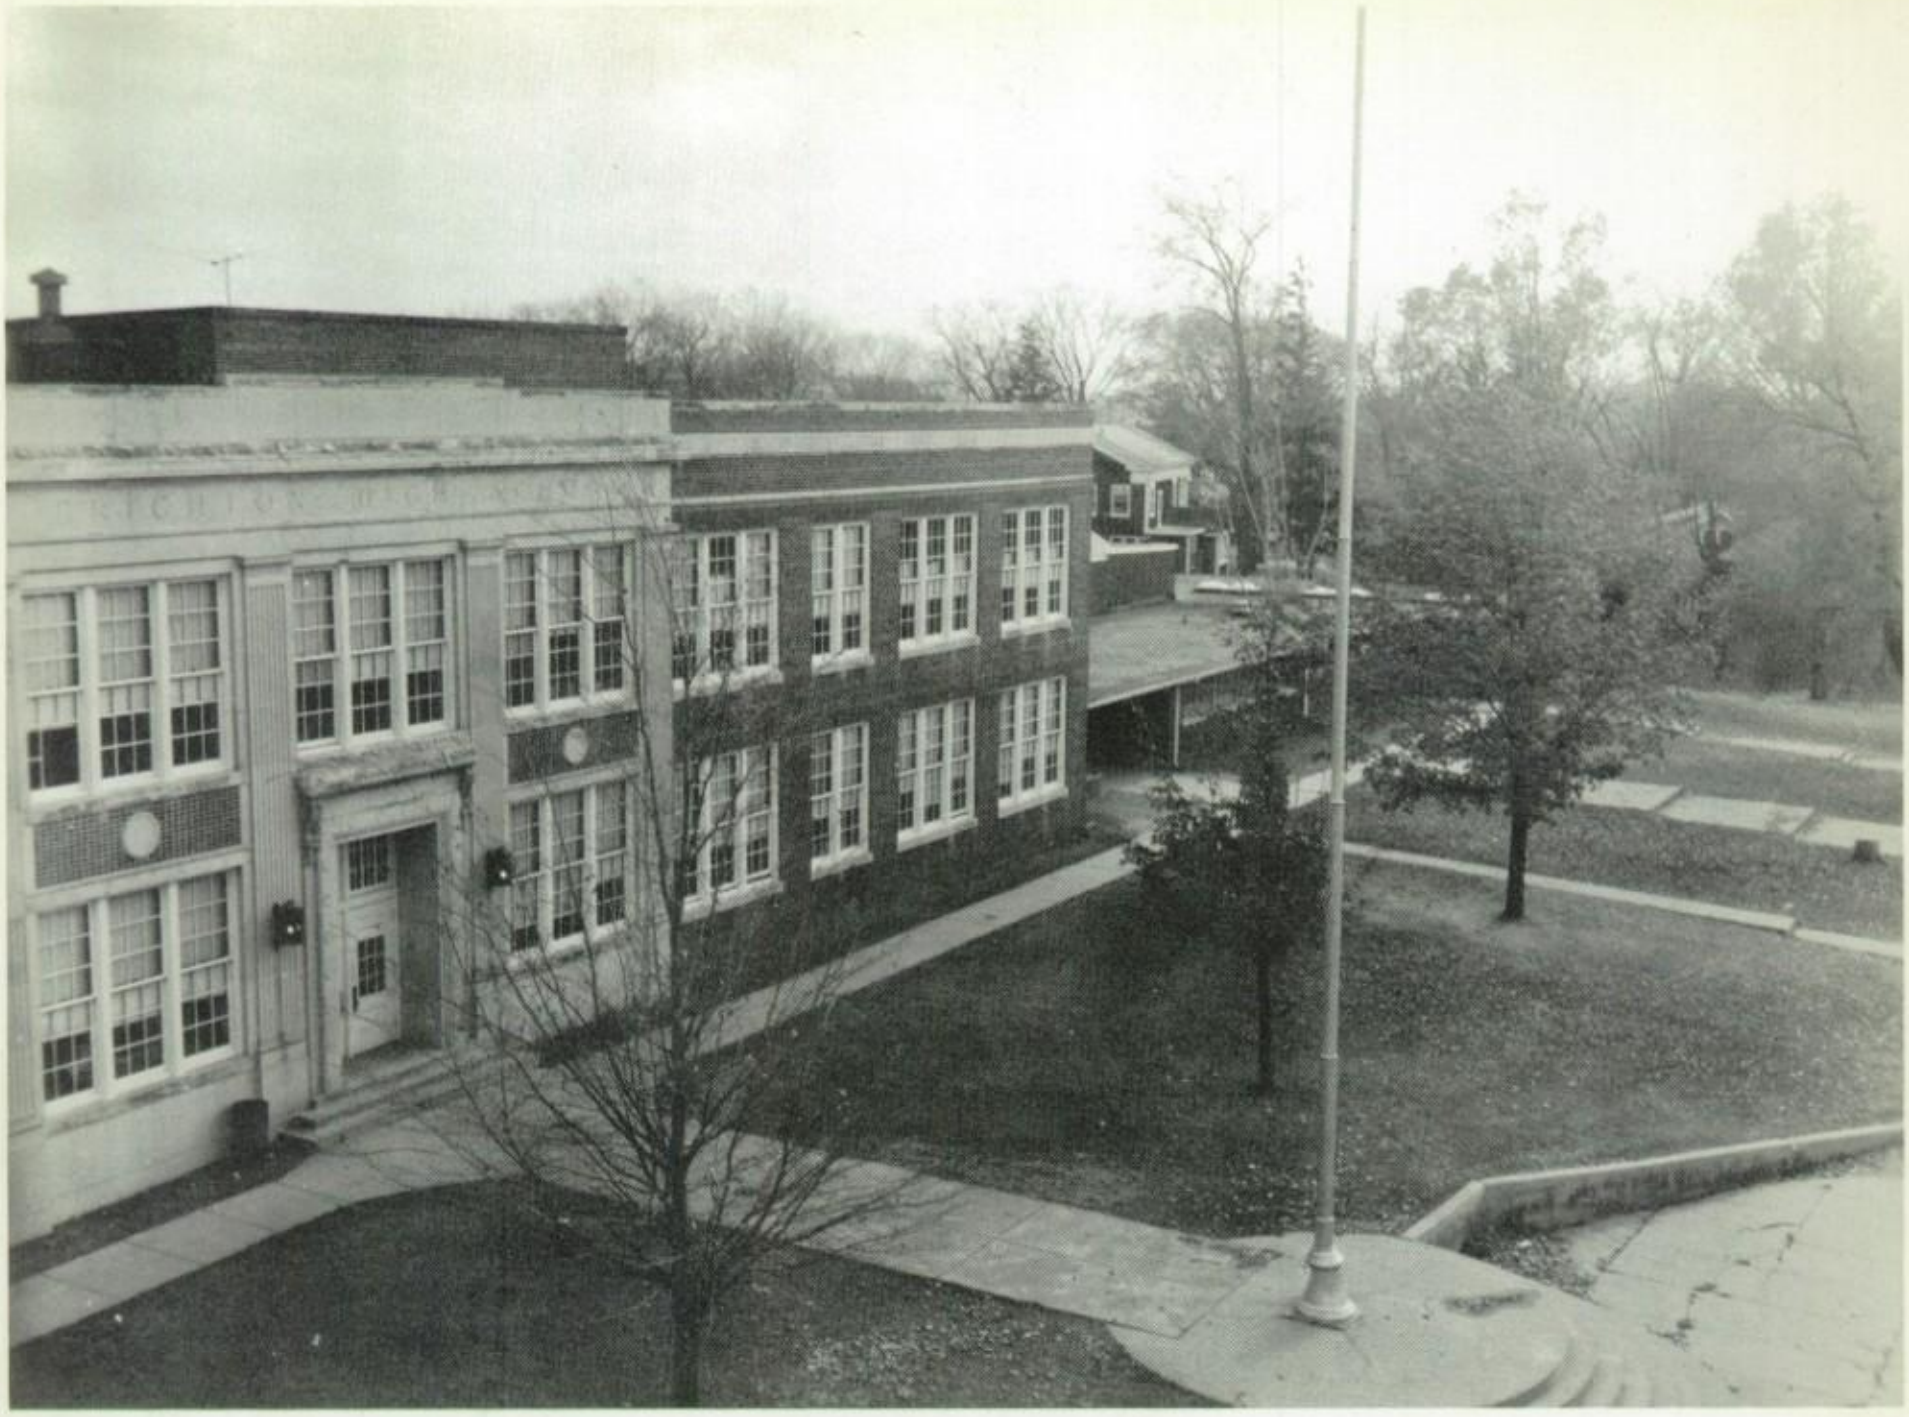
A School is like a Melody

Brightonian

Brighton, Mich.

1964-65



There's an old song which says that "A pretty girl is like a melody" which thrills you through and through"—but this year in the pages of the Brightonian we'd like to introduce you to the idea that "school is like a melody." Every year a different tune is played with the old and new musicians each contributing their special notes—Freshmen whose number drowned out the upper classmen, Sophomores and Juniors who were practiced in pitch, and Seniors who took a strong lead in keeping the harmony.

Here are caught all the sounds which make 1964-65 an unforgettable rhapsody which can be enjoyed over and over through the years like any other record—and you will find that as time passes, the "melody lingers on—"

JUNIOR HIGH — THE PRACTICE SESSIONS

The Junior High, with its 377 enthusiastic boys and girls, is the practice session for the later high school medley.

Here the 7th grade catches the excitement and also the seriousness of being thrown into the big high school jam session. Here they suddenly are no longer just In 7th grade but have become the Class of "70".

8th graders further learn the meaning of class loyalty and school spirit as they work and yell for the Class of "69".

Stretching out before them all are the beckoning activities and enticing sounds of Senior High.

And so they practice-practice-practice, that their class may become the biggest hit of ole' BHS.

SEVENTH GRADE like this class all year run through practice sessions warming up for their parts in the melody of B.H.S.

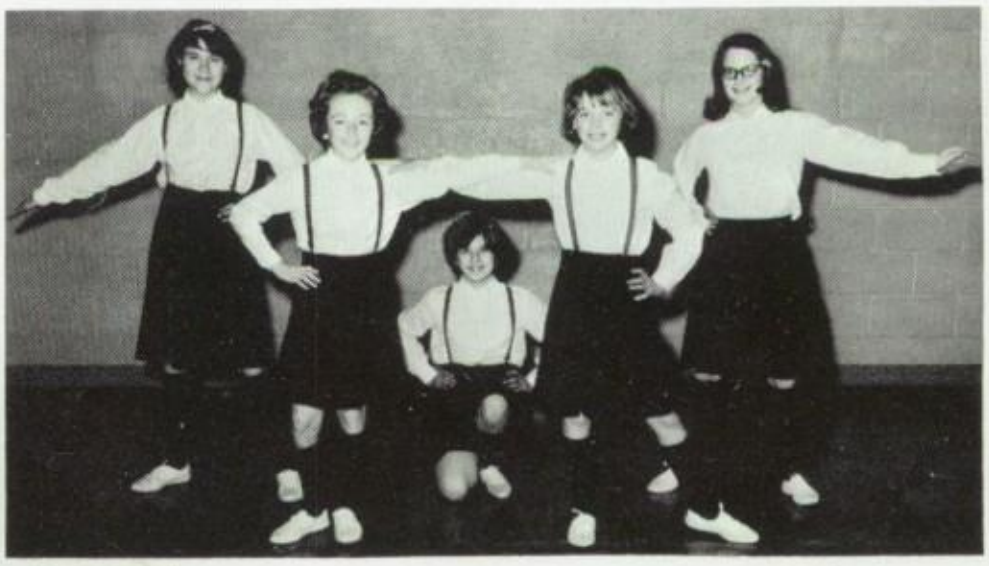
These teachers acting as directors put them through the practice sessions. Joanna Rommel, Carl Ehnis, Conn Doane, and Jim Spaulding

Other classes in Seventh Grade add their noise and enthusiasm as they prepare for Senior High.

Like the other Seventh Graders these boys and girls add their merry notes to Junior High

The members of our undefeated seventh grade team were: Top—John Herbst (mgr.), Chas. Pless, Robt. Musch, Jim Pearsall, Rich Ames, Dwight Fitzgerald, with Coach Vogel. Front—Ed Gardner, Darrell Denkhaus, Tom Bowditch, Robt. Bauer, Rich McKenney, and Mike Barton.

Alternating as 7th grade cheerleaders were these two squads of girls, Peggy Mitchell, Darlene Slagle, Terry Thomas, Linda Flaharty and Rene Wietzke.



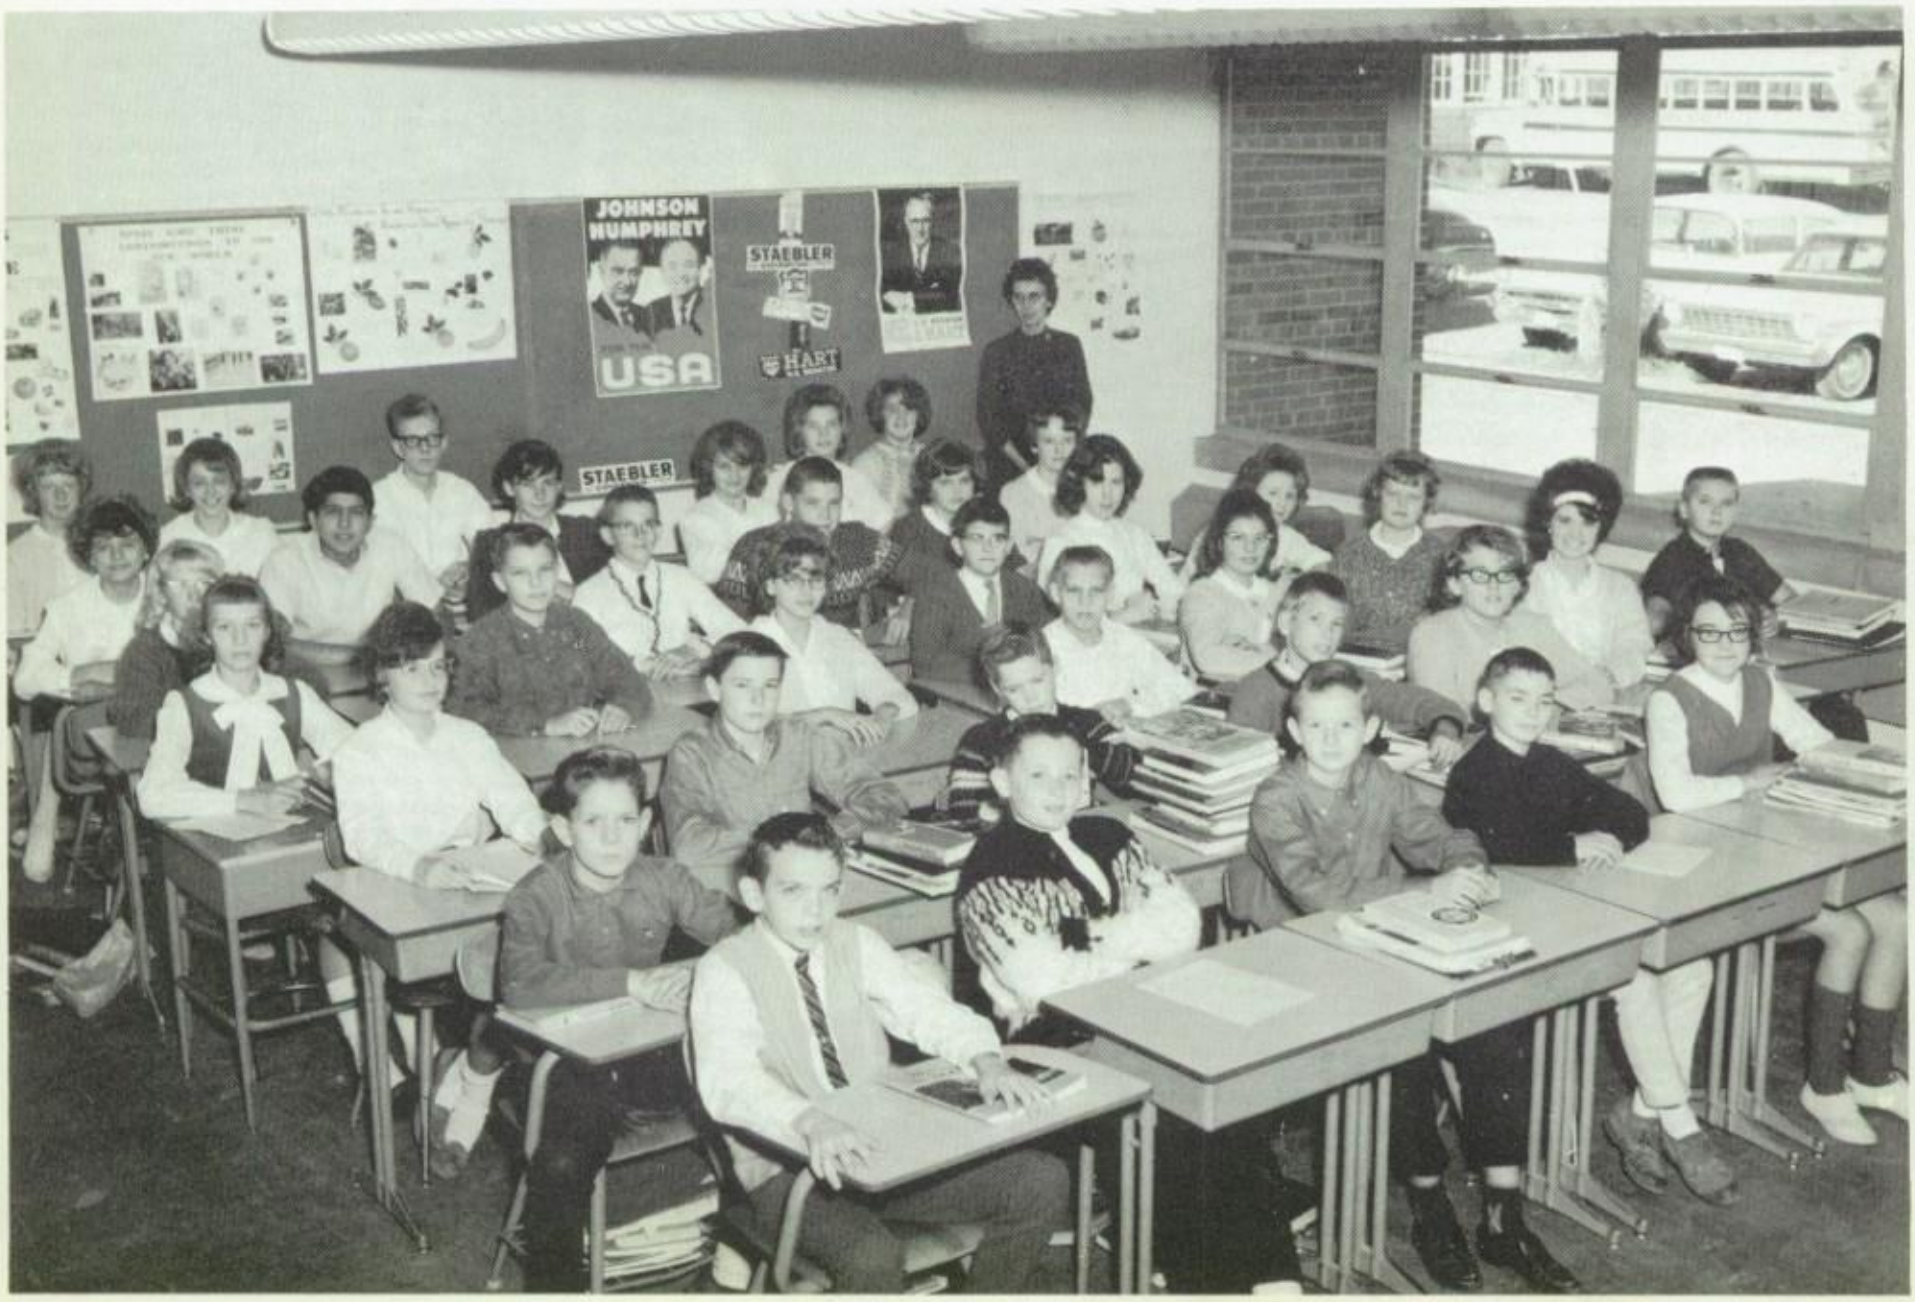
Our second squad; Kathy Krichbaum, center; Sherry Warr, Robin Boyler, Holly Davis, Nancy Bovender; RIGHT: Juanita Harger

Seeking the advice of Mr. Scranton, 7th graders knew the score.

Mrs. Margaret Etienne, Mrs. Joan Florsheim, Mrs. Gwen Bishop, and Lewis Arnold train the Eighth Graders.

This Eighth grade class tunes up together for their parts in high school years.

These Eighth grade groups contribute their happy notes to the medley of Junior high.



These 7th graders work with the others for top performance.

Jr. High Band tops in music and candy sales step up to Senior Band as they gain proficiency.

Adding to the crescendo of Junior High were the eighth grade basketball games with players Dave Fisher, Jeff Miller, Dan Carney, Jose Solero, Larry Luttermoser, Ron Russell, Randy Fisher, Matt Caid, Roger Ritter, and Scott Arnold coached by Gary Vogel.

Pert, Pretty and Peppy. Yeah Team! say eighth grade cheerleaders Janie Bidwell, Julie Bitten, Pat Leitz, Connie Green, Pat Koteles, Linda Reicks, Karen Leming and Sherry Herbst.

Little fellows dream of filling big jerseys and show up first for the BIG games.

The shaky, scared and excited Freshmen started their first year in utter confusion. Getting quickly down to work, they elected Ray Luttermoser-President; V. President-John Kearns; Secretary-Sue Spencer; Treasurer-Sue Hood; and Student Council Representatives-Linda Veno & Pat Flaherty. Homecoming Attendant chosen by the Frosh was Sue Spencer. Kevin Rosswurm replaced Pat for the second semester. They also picked their class colors, navy blue & white. "Here Comes Santa Claus" must have crossed their minds when they named their dance "Reindeer Romp."

Mr. Stuart and Mrs. Anderson, class sponsors, worked to make the Freshmen dessert the success it was. Audrey Matthews, Dick Elliott, and Greg Park spoke to them about their days at B.H.S. and frosh plans for the future.

With all this behind them Freshmen rowed into their Sophomore year.

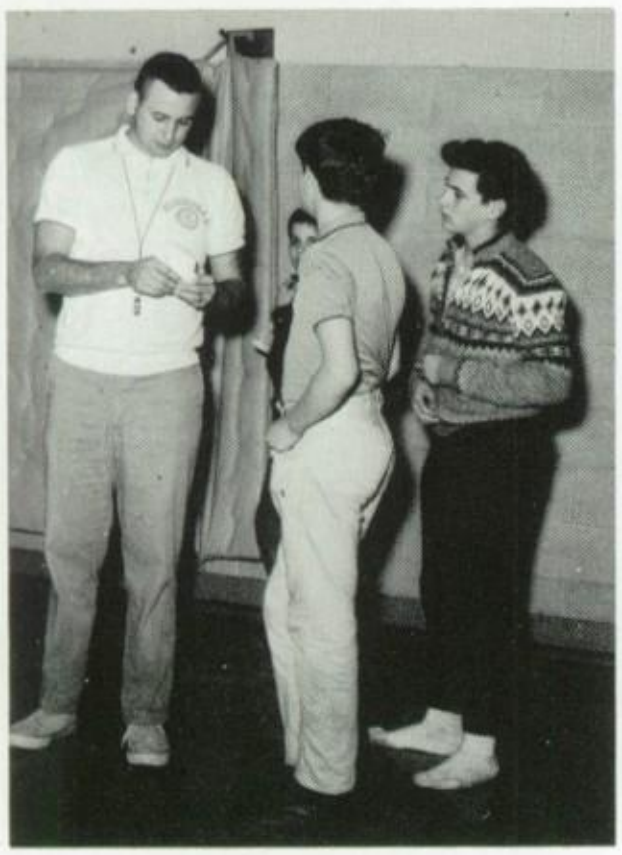
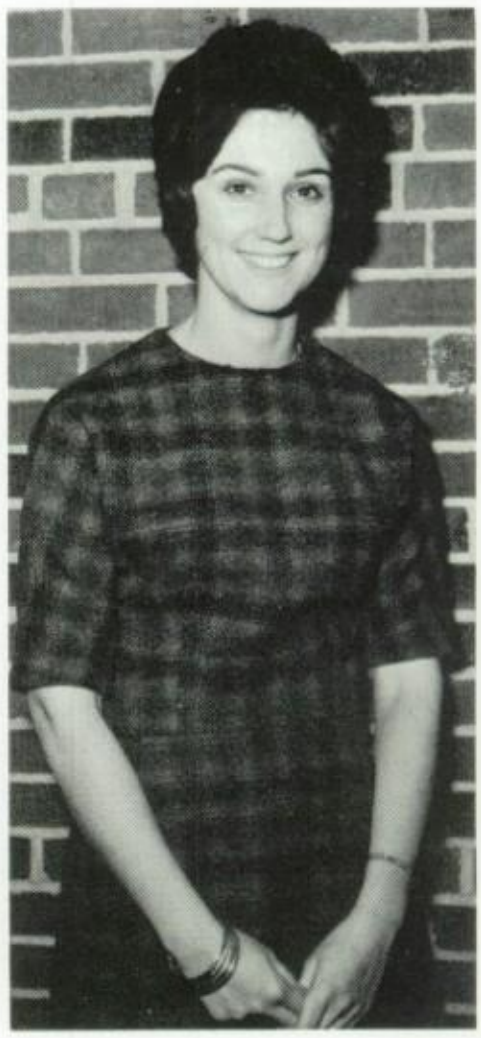
Mr. Smith in Biology, and Mrs. Franks in Algebra really came to know the Freshmen

Mrs. Herbst, our librarian has efficiently and expertly stocked the library with over 200 new books.



While Mrs. Fowler and Mr. Korowin kept BHS' students physically fit the year round.



Mrs. Wilson molds Senior students of today into citizens of tomorrow through her excellent and well-known teaching of Government.

Mrs. Ehrlinger stresses the fundamentals of the English language with the 9th graders, as does Mrs. Ikens, who also, with her Journalism classes, keeps the BHS Review in the Argus and supervised The BRIGHTONIAN of '65.

Toot, Toot, Tom

Play it, Jane.

"WE ARE CLIMBING"

Although "Live to learn and you will—learn to live (the motto chosen in their 1st year by the class of "67") isn't suitable to be sung, the sophomores have learned to harmonize smoothly in their first two years. Another of their first selections were the colors red & white along with the red and white carnation for class flower. A fee of $2.00 a semester was voted for dues.

The officers were President, Walt Davison; Vice President, Sharon Stine; Secretary, Denise Hargesheimer; Treasurer, Tom Grostick; and Student Council Representatives, Bob Pelkey and Rich Hyne. The Homecoming attendent was Connie Reed.

In that year they sponsored the dance "Time Out" and a Parents Nite Dessert. Because the class was too large, they had to sponsor two bake sales in which one half took charge in the fall and the second half in the spring. Their two class sponsors who helped them struggle through this first hectic year were Mrs. Hawkins and Mr. Smith.

When the year 64-65 came around, the class elected President, Tom Grostick; Vice President, Rich Hyne; Secretary, Sharon Stine; Treasurer, Denise Hargesheimer; and Student Council Representative, Joan Denkhaus and Dave Addington. Again, the class approved the same $2.00 dues. Denise Hargesheimer was chosen as Queen's attendant.

As sophomores, they sponsored another dance, "The Snowflake Swing," and a second Parents Nite Dessert. The bake sale worked the same way as the previous year, one half of the class furnishing goodies for each bake sale. Mrs. Berra and Mr. Smith guided them through their second successful year.

One hundred and fifty three members of the class of "67" faced their Junior year with confidence and high hopes.

J-HOP

"MOMENTS TO REMEMBER"

Every Junior's life was filled with them—rings-J-Hop-driver's license and plays. Many things had built them up for these big events since the class of '66 held their first business meeting and chose the white rose as their flower, the colors aqua and white, and the motto: "The stream of education leads to the river of success." The able leaders were Larry Flowers, President; Sue Stine, Vice President; Tietze Poppa, Secretary; Connie Leith, Treasurer; and Greg Park and Bob Cameron, Student Council representatives. Mrs. King and Mrs. Dentel were the advisors. Mrs. Dentel was later replaced by Miss Seinsheimer in "64". Diane DeJohn was the Freshmen Attendant for Homecoming. They sponsored a dance and a Freshmen Dessert in their first year.

In the Sophomore year they elected Jim Moore, President; Greg Park, Vice President; Anne Kearns, Secretary; and Cathy Pearsall, Treasurer. Sue Stine and Larry Flowers were Student Council representatives. Lolo Gaffney was this years attendant. A "Sock Hop" and a bake sale were the big money makers of the year.

As Juniors, they were under the leadership of President Lolo Gaffney; Vice President Larry Flowers; Secretary Ann Baetcke; Treasurer Ruth Tuthill. Bob Cameron and Tom Trebesh were Student Council Representatives. Tietze Poppa was the Junior Attendant. The rings were purchased and the Junior Play "Take Me to Your President" and J-Hop "Brigadoon" were put on in a most professional manner. When the year came to an end, all Juniors were happy to have three years behind them.

"SITTIN' ON TOP OF THE WORLD"

This song reflected the mood of the Class of "65" as they left 'ole Brighton High. It seemed "Long, Long Ago" when they started their Freshman year by electing Mike Stellwagen, president; Jim Funch, vice president; Kathy Cameron, treasurer; Audrey Matthews, secretary; and Sandy Orndorf and Joe Kearns, student council representatives. The colors were blue and white, and the white carnation was chosen as flower. They decided on the motto, "Life is a picture so paint it well." Sandy Orndorf was chosen queen's attendant. Their advisors were Mrs. Christenson and Mr. Golden.

Their Sophomore officers were Joe Kearns, president; Louis Scheffer, vice president; Kathy Cameron, secretary; Chuck Davis, treasurer; Kathy Wegrzyn and Mike Stellwagen, student council representatives. Terry Grostick was queen's attendant.

As Juniors they chose Chuck Davis, president; Joe Kearns, vice president; Linda Pearsall, secretary; Terry Grostick treasurer; and Kathy Cameron and Mike Fornier, student council representatives. Linda Pearsall was chosen as queen's attendant. Class advisors were now changed to Mrs. Levine and Mr. Jerezek. The big events were the Junior Play, the J-Hop, and, of course they got their school rings and driver's licenses.

Then the big year arrived, and the new Seniors met it with drive and determination. They elected Joe Kearns, president; Rex Hite, vice president; Kathy Cameron, secretary; Sandy Orndorf, treasurer; and Linda Pelkey and Linda Pearsall, student council representatives. Audrey Matthews replaced Rex Hite at the second semester as vice president. Sharon Canfield was named Homecoming attendant to Kathy Cameron as Homecoming Queen. The Seniors broke all records on their magazine sale, held a dance, presented their play "Onions in the Stew" to raise money for their trip to Washington and New York and the Fair. They had become quite aware of what was expected of them as adults and graduated after four years of fun and work.

All Seniors look forward to the end of the year when 3 big events take place. Mrs. Levine and Mr. Jerecyzek supervise the moving of the tables for the Senior Banquet, one of the highlights.

Rex Hite explains to Carol Fisher, Chris Crammer, Holly Warren, Mike Arnold and Sherry Robinson all the exciting sights they will see during Senior trip to Washington and at The Fair in New York, the biggest fun activity for the young graduates.

COMPOSITE—THE BHS MELODY

As in any musical masterpiece that works up to a climatic finale we bring together the results of the practice sessions, the work of individuals and groups to blend them all together for the BHS Finale.

The responsibility for a smooth performance at BHS rests on the shoulders of Mr. H. Gordon Hawkins, our superintendent, whose big program lies before him—a new school.

Assisting the superintendent is good hearted Mr. Leo Fitzgerald, whose friendly smile warms the hearts of everyone.

Calling the tunes are the school board members—Mr. Wayne Probst, Pres.

Mr. Don Warner

Mrs. Betty Maltby

Dr. Harry Davis

Mark MacMacken

Mr. Tom Leith

Mr. Ralph Lewallen

To Keep things in harmony MR. MILTON LAWSON, in Senior High, and MR. BOB SCRANTON, in Junior High, supervise the students and teachers with the help of their secretaries Mrs. Velma Beach

and

Mrs. June Dougherty

and

Counselor B. Boehnke and Assistant G. Vogel

(L) Sue Spencer, Freshman, looks her charming best.

From the rousing pep talks before the game to the final tackle at the end, our BHS Bulldogs fought long and hard through the 64 season.

The members of our J.V. squad were

1 B. Pelkey, T. Mahoney, B. Wright, T. Bair, J. Perry, D. Vesper.

2 R. Luttermoser, L. Atwood, E. Hurst, K. Rosswurm, R. Newton, E. O'Brien.

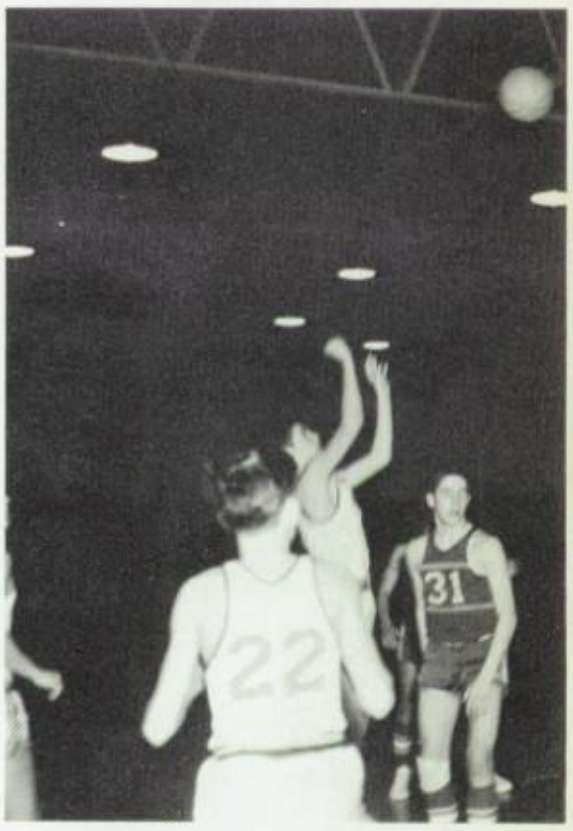
3 J. Murray, T. Grostick, M. Lueker. Because so many boys turned out you will find the rest of their pictures on page 128.

J. Perry, L. Atwood, E. O'Brien, B. Hatley, D. Grob, R. Newton, R. Ritter, D. Eikhoff, R. Minton, L. Lemorie, and B. Cameron were the members of our J.V. Basketball team.

Varsity Cheerleaders set a lively pace for pep meetings and athletic events. In 1964-65 they were Sharon Canfield, Vicki Queen, Linda Pearsall, Kathy Cameron, Linda Pelkey, Cathy Pearsall, and alternate Linda Woodbridge

The J-V squad Pat Larkin, Kathy Leuker, Gwen Bell, Sue Moore, June Wolfman, Cathy Housner, and alternate Chris Falk; kept that swinging spirit high!

Don Schreer, Mike Stellwagen, Rich Musch, Mike Lueker, Jim Dunham, Bruce Evenson, Cliff, Ritter, Hank Gallup, Jim Brown, Larry Flowers, Mark Hierlihy, and Rick Leitz. The 64-65 Varsity BHS Basketball team with managers Tony Russell and Larry Eikhoff, and coach Jim Korowin, had plenty of fighting spirit.



Spring is baseball time and our veterans of '64, the core of 1965 team, were impatiently waiting for a break in the weather when others would join them and get the ball humming under the coaching of Al Stewart. Players in the picture include: Back row—Ken Luttermoser, Bob Cameron, Hank Gallup, Bruce Evenson, Cliff Ritter, and Joe Kearns. Front row—John Kenny, Pat Faulkner, Doug Zimmerman, Lou Scheffer, and Dave Anderson.

Although there is no track for practice and little equipment, men like these are out every spring trying to break a record or place first in track events.
Back row: E. Hurst, G. Cuthbert, J. Asselin, S. Kujawa, J. Hyne, D. Kosakiewicz, R. Hyne, H. Maltby. Front row: D. Herbst, J. Laskey, G. Foster, T. Bair, M. Baker, J. Bair, D. Addington, B. Osborne.

Mr. Prieskorn gives a basic lesson to golf enthusiasts—Hank Gordon, Dick Musch, Jim Cook, Mike Lueker, and Tim Pearsall.

What's funny, Dick? Ol' coach Prieskorn says he knows everything about Golf, or does he?

The most melodic group in school—the "A" Choir

Director Mallett in many moods

Accompanist—Audrey Matthews

Bill Houghton, Dick Elliott, Carl Krueger, George McCreedy, George Bufford, Kathy Cameron, Linda Miller, Kathy French, Terry Grostick, and Lucy Ann Kroczak were the officers

Mr. Mallett has filled the choir schedule full to brimming with different activities—Concerts, Cider Night, and this year's operetta, "The Mikado." This was an elaborate production with rented scenery and costumes.

When the staff photographer changes his camera for a coronet who takes the picture? Who snapped this one?

Band officers Larry Eikhoff, Sharon Canfield, Sharon Stine, and Linda Heideman (missing Brenda Gruber and Cheryl Harvey)

with President John Hyne.

Jan Black, Richard Hyne, Jackie Wisser

Every good band has a "man up front." Rich Hyne with his rhythmical strut sets the tempo for our band.

Adding color to the performances are the majorettes Jan Black and Jackie Wisser.

"B" Choir

From B Choir and Varsity Band it's a short move up the scale to concert Band and Choir.

Varsity Band

Assisting the administration is our Student Council, always striving to bring the faculty and student body in tune. Members are from top to bottom, Freshmen, John Kearns, Linda Veno, and Pat Flaherty; Sophomores, Richard Hyne, Joan Denkhaus, and Dave Addington; Juniors, Larry Flowers, Tom Trebesh, and Bob Cameron; Seniors, Linda Pearsall, Rex Hite, and Linda Pelky and the officers.

Mr. Gene Shutz in his dedicated fashion advises the student council, with help from officers Louie Scheffer president, Greg Park vice president, Terry Grostick secretary, and Sue Stine treasurer.

Future Teachers of America

The purpose of F.T.A. is to help high school students in their choice of a career. To help with their decision, F.T.A. has a cadet teaching program, and field trips to colleges and workshops in the area. Money making projects send two delegates to the State Assembly at St. Mary's Lake near Battle Creek. F.T.A. also gives scholarships each year to deserving seniors.

Art Club, started this year by Miss Hutchins, was a pleasing cultural addition to activities which gave those in art classes and others interested in the subject a chance to enjoy field trips to art museums, hear lectures and enjoy creative experiences together.

Arguing a question of use of nuclear weapons were debators Jane Demorest, Alyson Arnold, Pat Arnold, Ann Schutz and Dave Wickstand. In late spring it was Forensics which caught the interest of the rhetorical minded.

Miss Lefferts, sponsor of the Ski Club, and all the members were too busy on the slopes to stop for a picture; too busy thawing out to brother other times—but the sport was popular during the winter months.

Future Nurses Club

Brighton F.N.C. grew considerably this year. The average attendance was from 30 to 45 members.

We gave our services to the nursing career in visiting sick people in hospitals, by giving gifts to mentally ill persons, and by helping in local nursing events such as the blood bank.

Each year we give pins to the members of our club, and this year we had a special to receive our pins.

We had a very good year.

FHA—Future Homemakers of America is an international organization. As its name indicates, its purpose is to make better wives, mothers, and citizens of the girls who belong.

They elected Sharon Canfield, President; Ethel Gibson, Vice President; Jacque Quackenbush, Secretary; and Cathy Cameron, Treasurer.

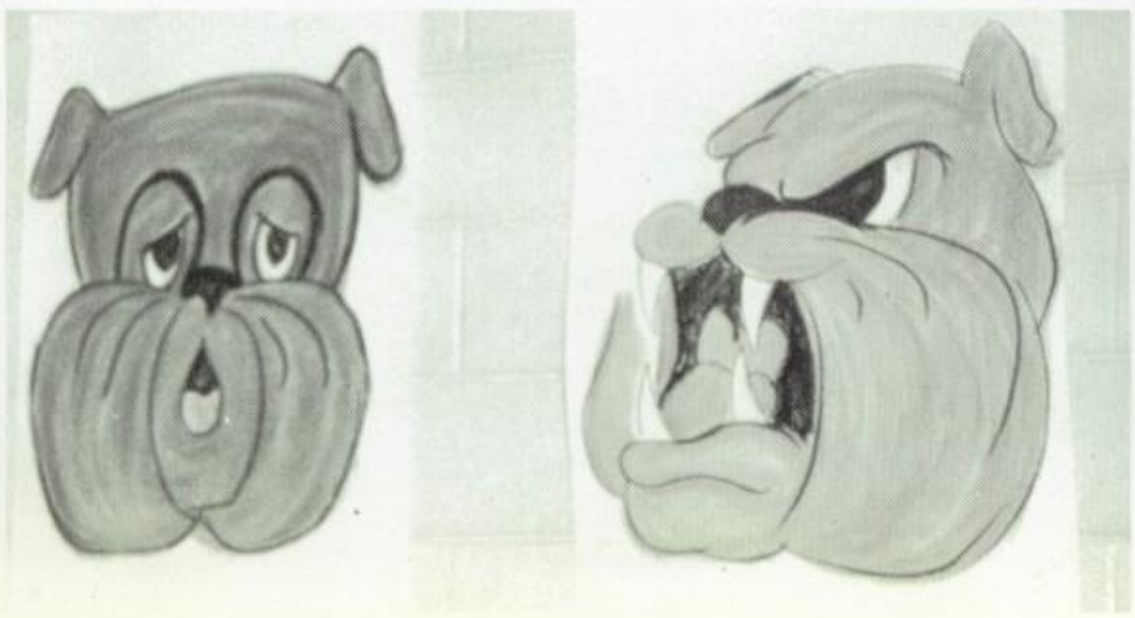
Throughout their year they enjoyed cookouts, parties, caroling, conferences, and especially the highlight of their year, the International Dinner. For this event they made costumes and different foods representative of many countries. The program was a sari demonstration and talk by Mrs. Petal from India.

Pizza, Donut and Cookbook sales topped their money-making projects for the 1964-65 year.

G.A.A. girls bounce and swing along with their basketball, baseball, volley ball, and bowling. Highlighting the year are the play days that the girls enjoy, under the leadership of Mrs. Fowler.

What is G.A.A.? Well, the letters stand for Girls' Athletic Association, but G.A.A. stands for much more than this. Let's take the first word, Girls. Now we know this is a club, some kind of club, for girls only. Lets take the second word, Athletic. This means sports, exercises, etc. And Association merely means a group of Girls or people gathered together for one purpose. Now we know what it is.

Well, what does it do? It does many things, It makes better people out of young girls. It gives them a chance to relax and enjoy themselves in sport activities. Also, it builds better and healthier bodies for them, which, will make them feel and look better. Like all sports it teaches good sportmanship.



Librarians lend a helping hand to Mrs. Herbst as she keeps the library corner humming.

Office Practice personnal give their study hall to gain actual on-the-job training assisting the big bosses.

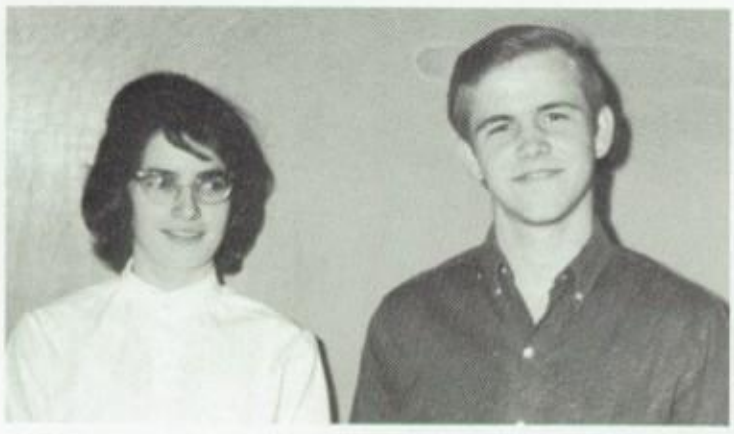
National Honor Society gives recognition to those who not only maintain enviable scholastic records but also are outstanding in service, leadership and character. This year the group included Brenda Gruber, Luanne Eikhoff, Larry Eikhoff, Mary Schoen, Richard Musch, Kathy Wegrzyn, Joe Kearns, Bob Cameron, Linda Woodbridge, Alyson Arnold, and seated Linda Tuthill, Chuck Davis, Audrey Matthews, Linda Heideman, Jacque Quackenbush.

Star Spangled citizens were Linda Woodbridge, Linda Heideman, Audrey Matthews, Linda Pelkey, Jacque Quackenbush, and Linda Pearsall who attended Girl's State,

and

Carl Wollenhaupt, Chuck Davis, Steve Kujawa, Joe Kearns, John Hyne, and Larry Eikhoff who attended Boy's State.

Steve Kujawa was a National Merit Scholarship finalist.



Sally Maltby and Mike Seger shared this year's math awards.

Linda Pelkey was honored with the DAR good citizenship award.

Top salesmen in Senior magazine drive were—Bill Houghton, Dave Williams, Tom Duffy, Terry Grostick, Audrey Matthews, Chris Cramer, Diane Shekell, Lucy Ann Kroczak, Linda Heideman.

Outshining them all was Marc Kirchner, who brought in over $300.00.

Top contributors to the BHS Review were the journalism honorary Quill & Scroll members—Ken Luttermoser, Audrey Matthews, Richard Holly, Charlene Sawallich, Linda Heideman, and Nancy Rawski.

Cecilia Soderquist won the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Contest.

For the 4 years Larry Eikhoff took charge of the colors—

Mr. Crawford, Superintendent of Transportation, keeps buses on the roads with their dependable drivers. Can you find your driver.?

Cooks, Mrs. Verellen, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Morrow, and Mrs. Luttermoser, whet up the appetites of the students with tasty meals.

Mr. Frank O'Dwyer and his crew with the help of Mr. Morrow, keep everything in running order and polished top to bottom.

"The Duchess," Mrs. Olga Carlock—easy to see how she gets her name.

AD's—COMMERCIALS

As if the wise old owls had told them, local merchants, industrial leaders and other business men in the area are caught by the musical concert which comes from that noisy spot—the high school. They know that here are the gay crowds who fill the restaurants and shops spending their dimes and dollars, they respect the purchasing power of these teenagers. They know here are the home owners and area residents of tomorrow who will conitnue to spend in Brighton, and who will read the yearbook as time goes on and keep a warm spot in their hearts for those whose ads made a bigger and cheaper Brightonian available to them year after year.

To all the advertisers—"Thanks for the Memory.". . . . . .

Joey
To a real cute girl who I really like. Joey we and Janelle have been through hell and high water. But we have all come through it and I am glad that all 3 of us are talking to one another. Be good and stay out of trouble. Love ya
P.S. Joey Don't do any drugs
This leaves a a lot of lead
Merry

Jo.

Joey
To a real cool
kid
We've had alot of fun together
We've contacts
we can go to party at the house. Remember the night at the carnival. Take it easy in the future. Be good kid
Love
Jo

Joie,

Guess what, did we have fun today!!
Let's get down to business. We have been friends for 3 yrs now, but it sure does seem longer than that.
Don't forget our partie of that other stuff ~~that~~ has happened while we have been together.
Remember these things.

1. The cottage!
2. The accident that put us in the hospital?!
3. The games
4. The guys
5. The C + F
6. Our fights
7. Our friendship
8. Our future trip to California!!
9. Our lotto luck!!
10. Little visits at school!!

(I don't forget the little bitty times I spent 5 weekends in a row at your house. Well I'll see you in a month so I'll see you in the future. Love Gabbi
